Data as of 29 October 2026

Table 1: Sample and filing by state

State	Frame	Drawn	Plain / legal	Filed	Filed (%)	Past day 30	Filing window
Tamil Nadu	17,417	1,000	700 / 300	525	52.5	140	26 Aug to 28 Oct
Telangana	3,401	375	262 / 113	218	58.1	187	04 Sep to 24 Oct
Karnataka	1,800	180	126 / 54	148	82.2	78	11 Sep to 28 Oct
Delhi	223	44	30 / 14	44	100.0	22	19 Sep to 26 Oct
Maharashtra	328	66	46 / 20	61	92.4	28	15 Sep to 27 Oct
All	23,169	1,665	1,164 / 501	996	59.8	455	26 Aug to 28 Oct

Notes: Data as of 29 October 2026. Past day 30: filed by 29 September, so the 30-day limit in s.7(1) has passed. Tamil Nadu is drawn by department × tier quotas, other states proportionally to department group with a cap.

Notes: One line per state; 996 applications have a filing date, from the portal acknowledgment where one exists, otherwise the RA sheet. Applications filed before the dotted line have passed the 30-day limit in s.7(1).

Table 2: Response within 30 days of filing, by state (%)

State	N	Any response	95% CI	Reply	Information supplied
Tamil Nadu	140	12.9	[8.3, 19.4]	12.1	5.0
weighted to frame		7.0	[2.6, 11.4]	6.9	2.1
Telangana	187	1.1	[0.3, 3.8]	1.1	1.1
Karnataka	78	52.6	[41.6, 63.3]	51.3	28.2
Delhi	22	22.7	[10.1, 43.4]	18.2	13.6
Maharashtra	28	46.4	[29.5, 64.2]	35.7	21.4
All states	455	17.4	[14.2, 21.1]	16.0	8.8
All excl. Telangana	268	28.7	[23.6, 34.4]	26.5	14.2

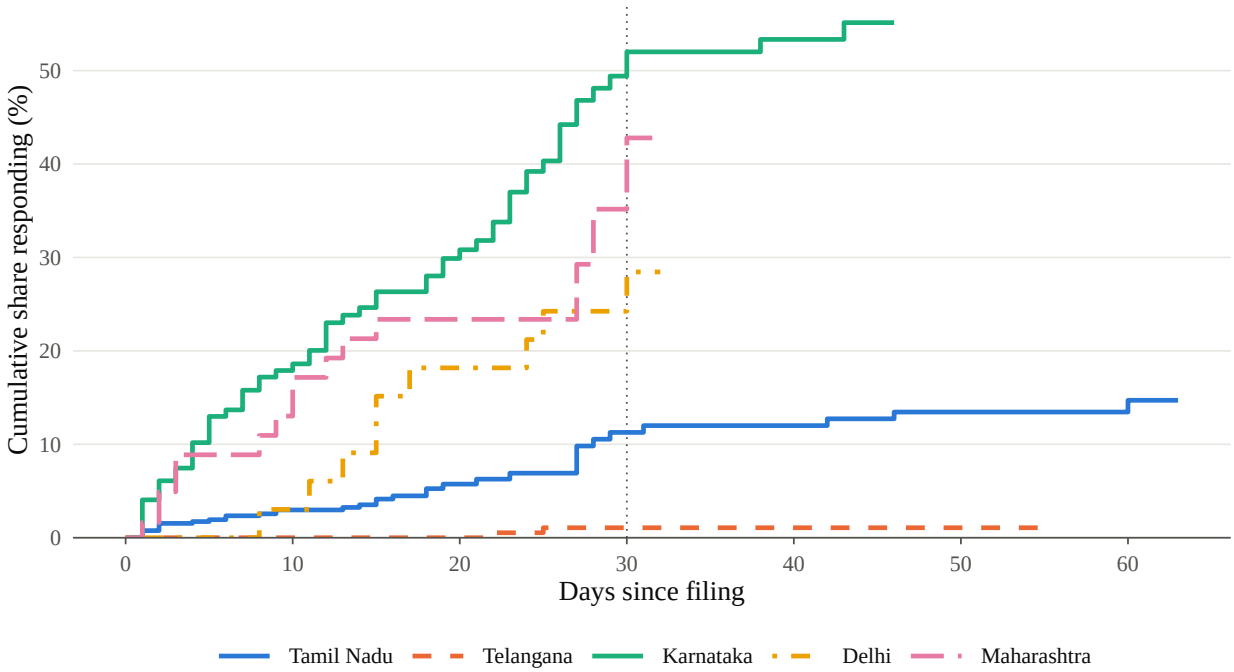

Notes: Applications past day 30. Any response: any office action, including a transfer or fee demand. Reply: excludes transfers. Information supplied: reply coded full or partial, a lower bound. Telangana is a lower bound because its portal sends no status emails. Brackets: Wilson 95% intervals.

Figure 2: What has come back so far, by state

Notes: Applications past day 30, status as of 29 October, whenever the reply came. N in parentheses; segments of 8% or more are labeled. Reply documents double-coded blind, with disagreements adjudicated. Telangana is a lower bound because its portal sends no status emails.

Figure 3: Time to first response, by state

Notes: Kaplan-Meier estimates of time to any response (any office action, including a transfer or fee demand), all 996 dated filings, censored at 29 October; curves stop when fewer than 10 applications remain at risk. Dotted line: the 30-day limit in s.7(1). Telangana is a lower bound because its portal sends no status emails.

Table 3: How fast offices respond

	Days since filing					Responders:
State	7	14	21	30	45	median days / N
Panel A. Any response by this day (%)
Tamil Nadu	2.5	3.4	6.4	12.9	14.3	15

Tamil Nadu	480	353	188	140	140	35
Telangana	209	188	187	187	138	2
Karnataka	142	123	102	78	40	62
Delhi	33	33	33	22	0	9
Maharashtra	49	49	49	28	0	18
All excl. Telangana	704	558	372	268	180	124

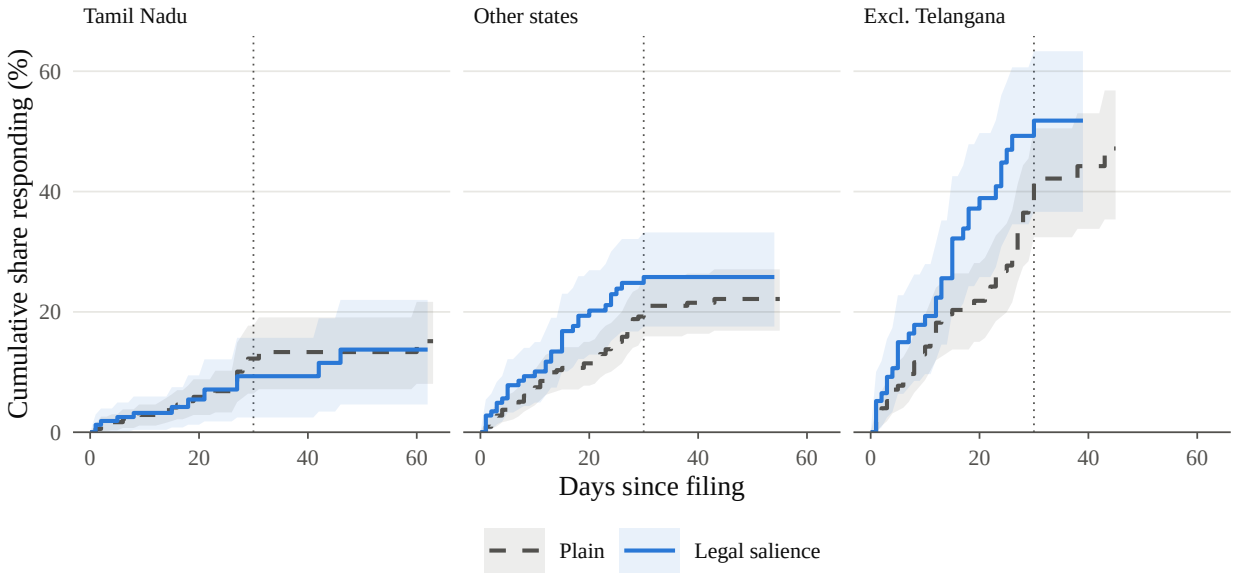

Notes: All dated filings; each column uses only applications filed at least that long ago, so shares need not rise. Any response: any office action, including a transfer or fee demand. Blank: fewer than 10 applications. Last column: median days (Panel A), responders (Panel B).

Table 4: Any response within 30 days, by letter (raw comparison)

	Plain		Legal salience
State	N	%	N	%	Difference	Fisher p
Tamil Nadu	93	12.9	47	12.8	−0.1	1.000
Telangana	130	1.5	57	0.0	−1.5	1.000
Karnataka	52	48.1	26	61.5	13.5	0.338
Delhi	15	20.0	7	28.6	8.6	1.000
Maharashtra	20	45.0	8	50.0	5.0	1.000
All states	310	16.5	145	19.3	2.9	0.507
All excl. Telangana	180	27.2	88	31.8	4.6	0.473

Notes: Applications past day 30. Legal salience: the letter adds the s.7(1) deadline and s.20 penalties to the plain request. Any response: any office action, including a transfer or fee demand. Raw differences in percentage points; the Tamil Nadu row is confounded with tier. Interim, unregistered look.

Figure 4: Time to first response, by letter

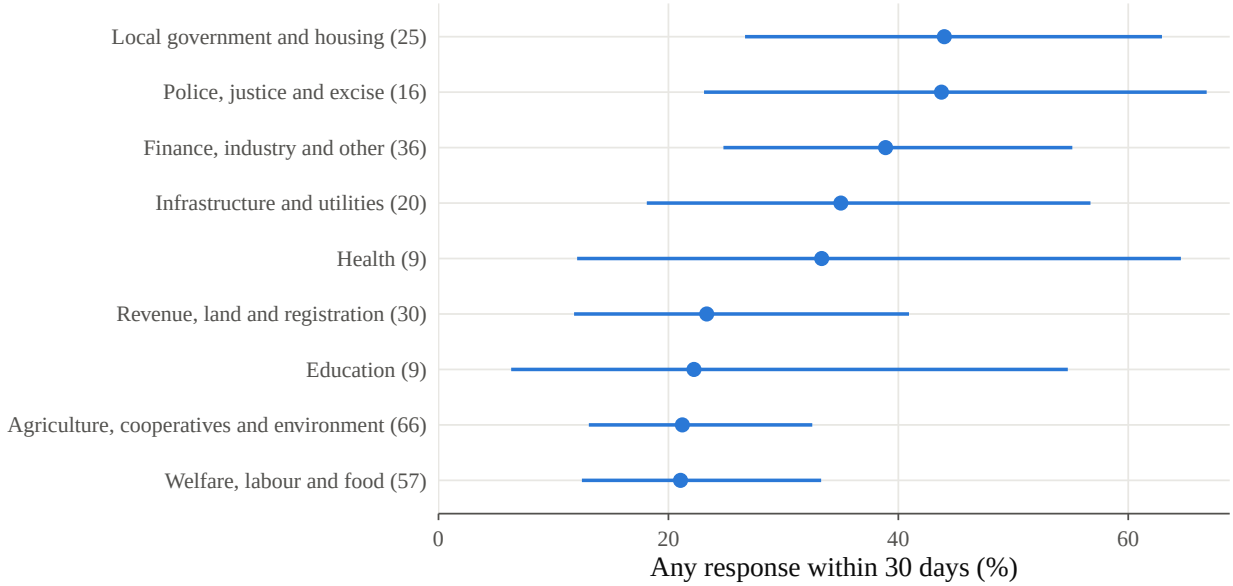

Notes: Kaplan-Meier estimates of time to any response (any office action, including a transfer or fee demand) with 95% bands, all filings, raw, so the Tamil Nadu panel is confounded with tier. Legal salience: the letter adds the s.7(1) deadline and s.20 penalties. Excl. Telangana: Karnataka, Delhi and Maharashtra. Dotted line: day 30.

Table 5: Response by Tamil Nadu tier and by filing cohort (%)

Group	N	Any response	Reply	Information supplied
Panel A. Tamil Nadu by tier, by day 30
Department	7	28.6	28.6	28.6
Head of Department	21	42.9	38.1	14.3

Panel B. By filing cohort, by day 14
Tamil Nadu, filed by 30 September	140	5.0	4.3	2.1
Tamil Nadu, filed in October	213	2.3	0.5	0.0
Telangana, filed by 30 September	187	0.0	0.0	0.0
Telangana, filed in October	1
Karnataka, filed by 30 September	78	23.1	21.8	10.3
Karnataka, filed in October	45	26.7	24.4	6.7

Delhi, filed in October	5
Maharashtra, filed by 30 September	36	25.0	16.7	11.1
Maharashtra, filed in October	13	15.4	15.4	15.4

Notes: Any response: any office action, including a transfer or fee demand. Reply: excludes transfers. Information supplied: coded full or partial. Panel A: past day 30, from only 11 of 40 departments because of filing order. Panel B: filed at least 14 days ago; blank cells have fewer than 10 applications.

Notes: Applications past day 30, excluding Telangana. N in parentheses; bars are Wilson 95% intervals. Any response: any office action, including a transfer or fee demand. Function is keyword-coded from department and office names (crosswalk in data/cleaned/). Pooled across states, so state differences are not removed.

Table 6: Any response within 30 days, by filer group

	RA1 and RA3		RA2 and RA4		Within block

Karnataka	28	57.1	50	50.0	−7.1	(11.9)
Delhi	11	27.3	11	18.2	−9.1	(18.6)
Maharashtra	12	33.3	16	56.2	22.9	(19.1)
All states	250	13.2	205	22.4	−2.0	(3.1)
All excl. Telangana	126	24.6	142	32.4	−2.2	(5.3)

Notes: Applications past day 30. Any response: any office action, including a transfer or fee demand. Only RA2 and RA4 could receive calls and both are one person, so this bundles phone with name and address. Difference: coefficient on RA2/RA4 with block fixed effects and robust SE, in percentage points.

Notes: Past day 30: filed by 29 September. Panel A: p-values on the letter in a linear probability model with randomization-block fixed effects and robust SEs. Panel B: counts, with the legal share among them and among all drawn in that tier. All 7 department-tier filings past day 30 got the legal letter.

Notes: Linear probability models, applications past day 30, percentage points, robust SEs. Legal letter: cites the s.7(1) deadline and s.20 penalties. Any response includes transfers and fee demands; reply excludes them; information: coded full or partial. Blocks: department × tier (Tamil Nadu), state × batch (others). Columns (4), (6) rest on 162, 41 applications in department groups with both letters.

Cox model, all filings (hazard ratio)
Legal letter, stratified by block	1.16 (0.49)	525	1.41 (0.31)	471	1.46 (0.33)	253

Notes: All rows: any response (any office action, including a transfer or fee demand), legal letter as in Table 10, block fixed effects, robust SEs. Later cutoffs and the day-14 row use applications exposed that long. Filer-group rows are exploratory. The Cox model is our addition, not in the design document; its SE is on the hazard-ratio scale.

Notes: Each point is a separate linear probability model of any response (any office action, including a transfer or fee demand) by that day on the legal letter, with randomization-block fixed effects, on applications filed at least that long ago. Bars are 95% intervals from robust SEs. The sample changes across horizons.

Notes: Linear probability models, applications past day 30, percentage points, robust SEs in parentheses. Outcome: any office action, including a transfer or fee demand. Telangana is excluded because its outcome is not comparable. Only the letter and, within state, the filer are randomized; the rest are associations. Blank function cells: no such offices past day 30.

All	1,665	996	696	983	105	14

Notes: Filed: a real registration number on the RA sheet or a portal acknowledgment. Notice, no PDF: the portal says disposed, returned or rejected, but the reply has not been downloaded. No status notices reached the inboxes from Telangana, Delhi or Maharashtra, so replies left only on those portals are not observed.
